Drake's Master of Science in Education Leadership

(Pre-K-12 School Principal Licensure) is known and respected by hiring school leaders across Iowa. The two-year graduate degree program is designed for professionals aspiring to take on a variety of leadership roles. Cohorts are forming now at Grant Wood AEA!

Highlights of the program include:

- Experienced faculty who have been successful school principals
- Face-to-face weekend courses—only three weekends per course
- Practice-based learning you can apply on the job from day one
