ANNOUNCING! A CURRICULUM LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY

Iowa ASCD is inviting You to join us in a face-to-face network of leaders of learning on July 20-21 at the FFA Enrichment Center on the DMACC campus in Ankeny.

This Leadership Academy for new and veteran curriculum leads will highlight the eight functions of highly effective curriculum leads in developing the collective capacity of your organization to assure that all students are successful.

Curriculum leaders must be leaders of curriculum, instruction, and assessment including data analysis, processes, professional learning, relationship building, performance, operations, and change.

The breakout sessions will include curriculum leaders in the state sharing their knowledge, skills and experiences in the following areas:

- Curriculum, Instruction, and Assessment
- Professional Learning and Relationship Building
- Operations and Processes to Make It Happen
- Change to Achieve Desired Response

Iowa ASCD Curriculum Academy Goals and Beliefs:

- Provide support for and engage new and veteran curriculum leads in learning how to serve effectively as a curriculum lead.
- Provide a Curriculum Leadership Academy over a two- or three-year period, where participants will acquire and or refine practical leadership strategies for application in community building, curriculum, instruction and assessment.
