Where: West Des Moines Hilton Garden Inn

Winter series dates: March 4 & 5, April 8

WHY ATTEND?

- According to the National Center for Mental Health Promotion and Youth Violence Prevention 25% to 30% of children experience trauma.
- That number has likely increased due to numerous, sudden and drastic changes – bringing mental stress, loss and turmoil into our lives
- These sessions will provide clarification of our roles in supporting ourselves and students.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

School Leadership Teams including administrators, school counselors, behavioral interventionists, social workers, school psychologists, teachers, health workers, community liaisons.

TEACH TO HEAL

Danielle Theis will guide us toward a roadmap for Systemic change that aligns to the reality of what works for the people we serve & our educators.

Teach to Heal is an infrastructure for schools. This is not the easier path... but it is right for kids.

Come start your Teach to Heal journey with this series.
