Building Instructional Excellence Through the Learning Walk Process

In this training, educators will analyze and plan for alignment of standards and objectives, student work, and assessment, leaving with a deeper understanding of the link between each and the implications for planning and instruction.

Participants will:

- Engage in a learning walk process to build a shared vision of instructional excellence.
- Define aligned supports for students, teachers, and leaders using data gathered during the learning walk process.
- Determine the next steps when implementing a learning walk process to build instructional excellence on your campus.

Registration: Iowa ASCD member $200.

Iowa ASCD non-member $245 includes a one-year membership.

November 6 & 7, 2023 (2-day event)

Collaborative Coaching Partnerships to Build Collective Efficacy and Facilitate Growth in Others

In this two-day training, participants will examine how to promote, design, and facilitate job-embedded professional learning aligned with group and individual needs. They will develop coaching skills to differentiate support through reflective practices and build relationships that impact instruction and enhance student learning.

Participants will:

- Know how to design and facilitate and monitor implementation of job-embedded professional development aligned to school improvement goals
- Understand how to facilitate high quality adult learning through professional development opportunities and coaching
- Be able to coach peers using the effective instructional cycle, promoting teacher reflection in order to achieve growth.

Registration: Iowa ASCD member $300.

Elevating Coaching Practices for Student Impact and Results

This one-day training helps prepare coaches and teacher leaders to engage in effective coaching conversations on their campuses. Participants learn to develop student-focused goals and coaching plans to structure intentional cycles of support for individual teachers. Coaches leave the training with best practices for staying results-focused, supporting teacher reflection, and listening for understanding.

Participants will:

- Develop student-focused goals for an intentional cycle of support for individual teachers
- Develop next steps for strengthening coaching plans
- Engage in coaching practices that drive continuous improvement reflection, and application of learning
